SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

Five AA guns, 18 heavy mortars and 30 trucks with billeting and instruction equipment of the Kriegsschule in Potsdam were entrained at the Wildpark railroad station on 4 and 5 December. All officer-candidates left the school with luggage on 5 December and the officers followed on 7 December. Only a few administrative officers, recruits and women remained in their billets. The German workers were notified that their employment would be terminated on 5 December. The number of recruits in the eastern section of the Adolf Hitler Kaserne was reduced while the course for officers in the western section was continued. The Ruinenberg Kaserne was being vacated by the Soviets and occupied by an advance party of VP men wearing green epaulets. Eight 85 mm AA guns, 8 x 37 mm AA guns and 40 trucks coming from Krampnitz and 32 JS-III tanks coming from the direction of Seeburg were entrained at the Wildpark railroad station on 5 and 8 December respectively.
